It's All About the History City Carriage Tour

For those of you who love to walk...this tour is tailor made for you. Following your one hour carriage ride we will head down Church Street to White Point Garden, better known as "The Battery". On the way we'll stop at St. Philips Church, established in 1670 and also known as the lighthouse church. The Nathaniel Russell House, built in 1808, is completely restored and is home to a magnificent free-flying staircase. Enjoy lunch in White Point Garden with views of the harbor and both the Ashley and Cooper Rivers. After lunch we'll visit the Edmondston-Alston House, Cabbage Row and drop by the Dock Street Theatre "America's First Theatre", and home to many of Spoleto Festival USA's productions. Don't worry - we left time for shopping in the Charleston City Market and in our wonderful retail shops along historic King Street.

*Tour will include a one hour carriage ride of Charleston's Historic District.
Lunch will be provided.*
