

Louisiana Lagniappe

North to South, A Little Something Extra

November 26 – 29, 2021

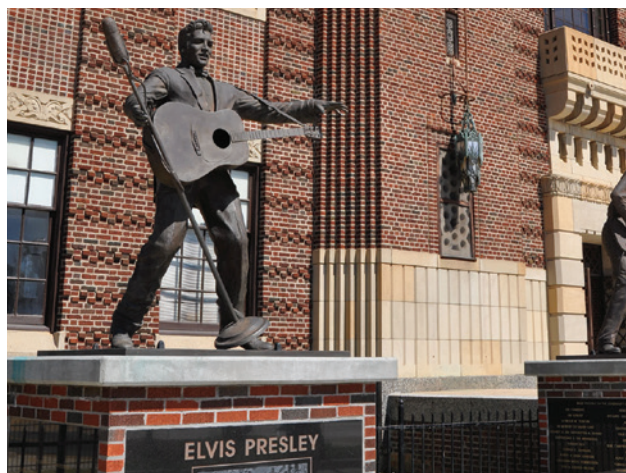

In Louisiana, you can feed your soul in many ways including savoring our world-renowned cuisine, dancing to our indigenous music, learning about our rich history, and delighting in our unique culture. Your adventure through the state begins by flying into SHV Shreveport-Bossier, Louisiana's third largest city, which offers plenty of fun activities like riverfront shopping, casinos, museums, and outdoor adventures. Stand on the stage where Elvis Presley became famous and the phrase "Elvis has left the building" was born. Next, you'll stop in historic Natchitoches, the original French colony in Louisiana and the oldest settlement in the Louisiana Purchase. Here you'll visit the beautiful Historic Landmark District and experience the famous Natchitoches Christmas Festival where you'll see over 300,000 lights and more than 100 set pieces on display at dusk. Finally in Lafayette, immerse yourself in the thriving Cajun culture through indigenous music, food, and dancing, plus visit Avery Island, home of Louisiana's most famous export - Tabasco hot sauce. our tour ends in New Orleans, where you'll spend three fun-filled days with your Southern USA friends in Louisiana's Crescent City.
