ON THE ROAD TO FREEDOM

Birmingham - Selma - Montgomery - Tuskegee

DAY 01 BIRMINGHAM ARRIVAL

Welcome reception and dinner with your Birmingham host and expert at Vulcan Park and Museum perched on Red Mountain looking down at the city of Birmingham. Our expert paints a vivid picture of how segregation in Birmingham unfolded.

DAY 02 BIRMINGHAM

Join our local expert and visit Kelly Ingram Park where police commissioner Bull Connor ordered police to use fire hoses and dogs on children and adults who were gathering to march. Then visit the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute as well as the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church across the street where a 1963 bombing killed four young girls there.

After lunch learn of why Dr. King chose to come to Birmingham and how important mass meetings were by visiting the historic Bethel Baptist Church and Shuttlesworth parsonage bombing site.

DAY 03 BIRMINGHAM - SELMA - MONTGOMERY

In Selma meet our local foot soldier and author as your local guide.

Visit Brown Chapel AME Church, the starting point for voting rights marches including the events of March 7, 1965 "Bloody Sunday" when 600 marchers were violently turned back by State Troopers at the Edmund Pettus Bridge and hear the first-hand experiences of those who participated in the 1965 Voting Rights demonstrations.

Next visit Tabernacle Baptist Church and another local expert for a tour and presentation about the church whose members were active in the Dallas County Voters League which invited Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. to Selma in 1964. Afterwards, enjoy traditional southern hospitality in the church fellowship hall for lunch featuring staples of southern cooking followed with a presentation about the nearby Gee's Bend quilters. Conclude your visit in Selma with a retelling of events by our local guide and a walk across the Edmund Pettus Bridge.

Depart Selma along the Selma-to-Montgomery march route. Along the way stop for a visit to the Lowndes Interpretive Center.

DAY 04 MONTGOMERY

This morning visit the Civil Rights Memorial and are welcomed here by a speaker from the Southern Poverty Law Center. 2021 marks 50 years that the Southern Poverty Law Center has been fighting hate, teaching tolerance and seeking justice in America. Visit the Wall of Tolerance and take the pledge and add your name to the Wall along with other world leaders and celebrities.

Nearby is Centennial Hill. This was the center of African American commerce and society in the 1950's. Here visit the Dexter Avenue/King Parsonage where Dr. Martin Luther King and family resided and raised his family. This is also the site where segregationists bombed the home and where King said the hand of God shaped him into the Movement's leader.

After lunch join speaker and author Peggy Wallace Kennedy as she tells of her experiences and a new awakening. She has been widely hailed as the "symbol of racial reconciliation" (Washington Post). In the summer of 1963, though, she was just a young girl watching her father stand in a school-house door as he tried to block two African American students from entering the University of Alabama.

Conclude your day in Montgomery with a visit to Dexter Avenue King Memorial Baptist Church, where Dr. King was pastor during the bus boycott. This is where Dr. King had his first public forays into movement leadership through his work as chairman of the Montgomery Improvement Association (MIA), which was formed in December 1955 to coordinate the boycott.

DAY 05 MONTGOMERY

This morning visit the Legacy Museum, which uses interactive media, sculpture, videography and exhibits to immerse you in the sights and sounds of the domestic slave trade, racial terrorism and the Jim Crow South of years past.

Visit the nearby Court Square, one of the most significant pieces of property for Civil Rights in the world. Court Square is the sight of former slave markets, adjacent to the square is the Winter Building and from there the telegraph to fire on Fort Sumter was given which effectively began the US Civil War, and the square is also the site of where Rosa Parks boarded the bus which began the Montgomery Bus Boycott.

Visit the Rosa Parks Museum which tells the story of Ms. Parks. On December 1, 1955, Ms. Rosa Parks, an active leader in the Montgomery chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)—was arrested for refusing to vacate her seat for a white passenger. The Montgomery Bus Boycott lasted from 1955-1956 and is one of the events that marks the beginning of the Modern Civil Rights Movement.

After lunch visit the National Memorial for Peace and Justice, the nation's first memorial dedicated to the legacy of enslaved black people, people terrorized by lynching, African Americans humiliated by racial segregation and Jim Crow.

Later join staff from Equal Justice Initiative as they discuss what EJI believes and how they advance equal justice for all in the US.

Enjoy a special evening of music with a local group as they share the importance of song and music in the African American community. From the origins of Negro Spirituals to mass meeting and freedom songs, our host carries you on a journey of discovery of how these songs which were sung at home progressed into the first independent black churches and how these songs and choirs supported the movement and Dr. King on his visits around the US.

DAY 06 TUSKEGEE - BIRMINGHAM DEPARTURE

This morning visit the Tuskegee Airmen Historic Site commemorating the contributions of African American aviators of World War II before a visit to Tuskegee University and the monument of Booker T. Washington lifting the veil of ignorance. Learn of Booker T. Washington and George Washington Carver before a celebratory farewell lunch and southern hospitality in a local restored antebellum home.

After lunch return to Birmingham for your flight home.
