READERS' CHOICE AWARDS

The Friendliest Cities in the U.S.: 2019 Readers' Choice Awards

1. Savannah, Georgia

The locals of Savannah are so fun and talkative you'd think it was an act. (It's not.) One of our readers said, "The folks in restaurants, on the streets, and on their balconies were so kind and welcoming." The city feels eminently walkable and safe, and even has chilling ghost tours for when you want your visit to be a bit more...spirited. The laid-back atmosphere and squares dripping with Spanish moss, surrounded by historic homes with grand porches, makes for a perennially appealing setting.
