UNIQUE LODGING

♥ Heights House Hotel

This historic property is completely renovated and restored to a nine-room boutique inn and gathering space. Created from an 1858 Italianate style historic mansion in the Boylan Heights neighborhood, this National and Raleigh Historic Landmark is one of the few remaining pre-civil war houses in the area. HHH boasts a lobby bar and lounge for guests and the community, The Parlor, with Italian-inspired cocktails and wines.

♥ The Umstead Hotel & Spa

Five Star and Five Diamond independently owned hotel drawing inspiration from art and nature. The property features stunning interiors punctuated with privately curated fine art, 150 spacious guest rooms and suites, world-class farm-to-table cuisine, a stimulating spa and a serene woodland setting. Phased renovations were completed in 2022.

CULTURAL DIVERSITY

Raleigh sees a daily influx of 66 new residents, with India, China and Mexico as the primary source countries. More than 40% of the population is nonwhite, and Raleigh's median age is almost two years lower than the state average.
