

Explore Kentucky with a Three-Day Itinerary

Day 1 - Louisville

Arrive in Louisville. While exploring Kentucky's largest city, be sure to take in a tour at the Kentucky Derby Museum or enjoy seasonal racing at Churchill Downs, home of the Kentucky Derby. Have a lunch cruise aboard the Belle of Louisville while viewing the city from the water. Check out the downtown museums and attractions on Whiskey Row, including the Muhammad Ali Center, the Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory, the Frazier History Museum, the Evan Williams Bourbon Experience and more. For dinner, enjoy a Hot Brown at The Brown Hotel or one of the many other iconic restaurants listed below.

Restaurant Ideas: Mussel & Burger Bar, Wagner's Pharmacy, The Café at Paristown, Walker's Exchange

Day 2 - Lexington

On the way to Lexington, the Horse Capital of the World, stop in Frankfort at the Buffalo Trace Distillery for a free tour and bourbon tasting. When arriving in Lexington, see a horse show or demonstration at the Kentucky Horse Park, take a tour of the historic Keeneland Racecourse and book a horse farm tour with Horse Country. In the evening, check out Lexington's Distillery District or the new dynamic public marketplace, Greyline Station.

Restaurant Ideas: Zim's Café, Track Kitchen, Honeywood

Day 3 - Bowling Green

Depart for Mammoth Cave National Park and the Bowling Green area. If time allows along the route, stop in Bardstown, the Bourbon Capital of the World®. Schedule a tour, tasting or cocktail class at one of Kentucky's 65+ distilleries to learn more about the journey bourbon goes on from barrel to bottle. Take a tour at Mammoth Cave National Park, the world's longest-known cave system. Continue onto Bowling Green and check out the National Corvette Museum and NCM Motorsports Park. In the evening, take a walk around downtown and Fountain Square.

Restaurant Ideas: Gerard's 1907 Tavern, The Bistro, Chaney's Dairy Barn, Anna's Greek Restaurant
